The supervision of students at all times whilst at the Goldfields Camp School is the booking group’s responsibility. The Club/organisation appoints a Co-ordinator in Charge to act as the authority whilst on camp. The Co-ordinator in Charge needs to tick the boxes below along with the Club President and is responsible for:

- Coordinating rosters and routines for students to tidy dorms and toilet area’s.
- Set and clean up before and after meals.
- Ensure all camp participants treat all camp school staff with courtesy and respect.
- Ensure all students are supervised at all times, this includes planned activity, free time and club organised activities.
- The carry and administration of group/team-supplied first aid kit.

In signing this booking form you are accepting the above conditions and responsibilities. Any damage caused to our facilities will be charged accordingly to the group. Please call the Manager, Ray Foxon, personally should you have any queries.
